

Neurodiversity Support

Offering expert support to neurodivergent employees through tailored care and dedicated specialist consultants.

Neurodiversity Support is provided independently to your organisation.

Neurodiversity Support offers tailored guidance, providing strategies that align with your unique ways of thinking, working, and communicating, empowering you to navigate challenges and opportunities at work and home.

We can support you with:

- tools to improve your functioning and wellbeing at work and home
- tips on how you can work towards your strengths and opportunities
- sensory, cognitive, and physical intervention and support for grief and loss, including other mental health support avenues
- guidance or referral options for additional support and information on assessment and diagnosis options
- insights for staff on making the workplace more inclusive, including psycho-education
- guidance for carers, family members, colleagues, and managers of neurodivergent individuals.

Your Neurodiversity Support is:

- A free, confidential service
- Available to all employees anytime, anywhere

Details of your discussion will not be shared with your manager or workplace. You can read our Privacy Policy on our website.
